

Improvised Electro-Jazz-Funk-Space Rock

Indra was a pretty cool club. The Beatles had even played at this place. Very few people at the concert as they were all at home watching the European Football championship and it was our luck two German teams played. This was the cooler place to be for sure. Great visuals by Andreas and his friends. We played a long and spaced out show with a lot less energy than on the boat. Cool show though. It has some distortion due to my battery in my micorphones being low. Sorry..

Jiri- Bass, Birk- Drums, Mogens- Keyboards, Rolf- Congas Set II only
